THANKS TO ALL who helped and ate at the Pancake Breakfast last weekend: MaryAnne Guiler, Albert Guiler, Irma O'Connor, Elva Harris, Trent Clarke, John Sammut, etc. We fed everyone for very little and we made over $100. for the March of Dimes! YAY, TEAM!!!

THANKS ALSO, to Nancy Sutherland for the CANADA DAY cake, and to Tom Eeles who made sure it got here safely!

AND THE WINNER OF THE AIR HOCKEY CHALLENGE was Kelly Harrison! If you're under 12 and think you're up to the task, maybe you can challenge Kelly for her title, but you'll have to win two games out of three. See Mike to arrange a challenge against Kelly or to challenge Mike for his adult FOOSBALL title

SEEN IN PASSING...Bill Roberts, investing his money and goin' fishin'...Bill Woolley, hooking a 60-pounder... John Sammut - AAAA (Almost Always Available for Anything!)...Lauren Harrison with a bullseye...Buddy Guy, keeping up with an 11-yr. old...

Remember that pink paddleboat which was on shore behind the Weirs Gallery? Well...it's blue! If you know who it belongs to, please inform the Office.

CAMPERS HELPING DISABLED CAMPERS

Come to the Office to see the insulated knapsack/ picnic set donated by Janice Guy : it has a full service for 4 with cloth and napkins. And the load of compost or topsoil, donated and delivered by Mike O'Connor will certainly spruce up your yard and garden. Tickets are $1. each.

VIDEOS (some CDs) - borrow for $1. donation
